4 Internal resolution process

- 4.1 TC Energy has established the following three different processes to resolve Harassment or other inappropriate behavior allegations.
- a) Personal resolution.
- Following an initial Company assessment, personal resolution may be recommended as a first step in resolving behavior that is inappropriate, but does not meet the threshold of Harassment.
 - The Employee or Contractor who have experienced or witnessed inappropriate behavior should advise the Respondent(s) in a reasonable and appropriate manner, either verbally or in writing, that the behavior is inappropriate and should stop.
 - Personal resolution is not a required step to advance to facilitated resolution or formal investigation.
- b) Facilitated resolution.
- Following an initial Company assessment, facilitated resolution may be recommended to resolve the complaint. Both the Complainant and Respondent must agree to participate in the facilitated resolution for it to proceed.
 - Facilitated resolution may include coaching, counseling, and/or conflict resolution with a neutral third party, such as a Human Resources Consultant. Other parties, such as leaders, may be engaged as required.
 - If the facilitated resolution is unsuccessful or the inappropriate behavior is repeated, the Company will determine if any additional steps are required.
- c) Formal investigation
- A formal investigation may be initiated when the Harassment Investigation Coordinator determines it is required.
 - The Harassment Investigation Coordinator will advise the Respondent that a complaint has been made and provide details of the complaint in writing. The Respondent will be allowed reasonable time to provide a written response to the complaint and will be subsequently interviewed.

- During the formal investigation process, the Harassment Investigation Coordinator may interview witnesses, collect additional evidence and notify the applicable leader(s) and Human Resources Consultant.
- The Harassment Investigation Coordinator will consider all relevant evidence gathered to determine whether a breach of this or any other Company policy has occurred. A summary of findings will be shared with both the Complainant and the Respondent.
- In cases where the Harassment Investigation Coordinator finds the Respondent to be in breach of any Company policy, Human Resources leadership will determine appropriate corrective action. Any required course of corrective action will be communicated to the Human Resources Consultant and to the appropriate leader(s) for implementation.

5 Follow-up action

5.1 Once the resolution process is complete, the Harassment Investigation Coordinator may contact Employee or Contractor involved in a Harassment or inappropriate behavior complaint to:

- a) ensure the Harassment has stopped;
- b) ensure there was no retaliation; and
- c) assess if the work group is free of Harassment and other inappropriate behaviors.

6 External resolution

6.1 The Company prefers to resolve all Workplace Harassment and other inappropriate behavior complaints internally. However, complaints related to Harassment can be filed directly with the appropriate federal, state, or local agency without being filed internally.

Compliance

Employees and Contractors must comply with all aspects of this Policy and support others in doing so. Employees or Contractors are responsible for promptly reporting suspected or actual violation of this Policy, applicable law, or any other concern, through available channels so that it can be appropriately investigated, addressed and handled. Employees and Contractors who fail to comply, or knowingly permit Employees and Contractors under their supervision not to comply, may be subject to appropriate corrective disciplinary action in accordance with the Company's Policies and processes.
