3. If the shares are registered in the name of more than one owner (for example joint ownership, trustees, executors, etc.), then all those registered should sign this proxy. This person may also have to provide proof that he or she is authorized to sign.
4. This form of proxy should be signed in the exact manner as the name appears on the proxy.

7. If there are any amendments to the items of business identified in the Notice of annual meeting of shareholders or any other matters that properly come before the meeting, your proxyholder has the discretion to vote as he or she sees fit; in each instance, to the extent permitted by law, whether or not the amendment or other item of business that comes before the meeting is routine or contested.
8. This proxy should be read in conjunction with the Notice of annual meeting of shareholders, and the Management information circular.
9. Proxies are counted and tabulated by Computershare, TC Energy's transfer agent, in such a manner as to ensure the votes are kept confidential, except: (a) as required by law, (b) if there is a proxy contest, or (c) if there are written comments on the form of proxy.
10. Late proxies may be accepted or rejected by the chair of the meeting at his or her discretion and the chair of the meeting is under no obligation to accept or reject any particular late proxy. The chair of the meeting may waive or extend the proxy cut-off without notice.
